Welcome to Belgrade

City of many nations, BELGRADE is a city with a tumultuous, but also frequently tragic past, primarily due to its unique position at the confluence of the Sava and Danube rivers, on the border between the East and the West. Due to its position it was rightfully named “Gates of the Balkans” and the “Doors of Middle Europe”. Belgrade is one of the oldest cities in Europe with a 7000-year history. Visitors who come to Belgrade for the first time, never leave indifferent, and always come back to it with joy. More importantly, Belgraders like everyone, so get to know Belgrade by getting to know Belgraders!

The Royal Palace in Dedinje was built between 1924 and 1929, on orders by King Alexander I, as the official royal residence. The building of the White Palace, which is part of the Royal Palace complex, was built to the wishes of King Aleksandar I as a residence for his sons. It was built from 1934 to 1937 to a design by the architect Aleksandar Djordjević. Today it is the home of the heir to the throne, Aleksandar II and his family.
